

We Remember Them

-adapted from the poem “A Litany of Remembrance”

written by Rabbi Sylvan Kamens and Rabbi Jack Riemer.

I encourage you to participate in this interactive poem. After I read a line, please respond with the line “we remember them.”

Sue: At the rising of the sun and in its going down,

ALL: We remember them.

Sue: In the chill of winter, rebirth of spring, warmth of summer and beauty of autumn,

ALL: We remember them.

Sue: When we are weary and in need of strength,

ALL: We remember them.

Sue: When we have joys we crave to share,

ALL: We remember them.

Sue: When we have achievements that are based on theirs,

ALL: We remember them.

Sue: As long as we live, they too will live, for they are now a part of us

ALL: We remember them.
